A photograph of two men in historical military uniforms. The man on the left has a beard and is wearing a dark cap, a dark vest over a white shirt, and a long, light-colored cape. The man on the right is wearing a dark cap with a silver band, a blue jacket with a red waistband, and light-colored trousers. He is holding a rifle. They are standing in front of a dark wooden door and a light-colored wall. The lighting is dramatic, with strong shadows.
